5. Amendment of section 124.—In sub-section (3) of section 124 of the principal Act, the words “having a right of occupancy” shall be deleted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Under the law as it at present stands, a non-occupancy tenant has no right to partition of his share in the tenancy held by him jointly with other or others, though this right is available to an occupancy tenant. In the context of the present day circumstances when a non-occupancy tenant cannot be ejected except for limited reasons, it has been considered necessary to bring the non-occupancy and occupancy tenants at par in matter of their rights to partition. Similarly, it has been considered expedient to make a provision for the recovery of loans under the various housing schemes and for the realisation of misused and unutilised funds of grant-in-aid given under the Local Development Works and Amenities Grants-in-aid Rules, 1965 as arrears of land revenue. This Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.
